SPECIAL EXHIBITS

Flight of the Dragon - Located at the intersection of E. California Street and North 3rd Street, this sculptural Dragon weathervane was created by Jacksonville metal artist Cheryl D. Garcia in honor of the Year of the Dragon. As the most powerful symbol of the Chinese Zodiac, this sculpture incorporates reclaimed materials from the Oregon Coast and a durable finish adding longevity and good fortune to the Water Dragon elements of 2012.

Traditional Chinese Handicrafts and Intangible Cultural Heritage - in the Naversen Room in the Jacksonville Library (in addition to the front entry display). The display will be in place from January 17 through February 22.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES begin at 11:30AM
